DISASTER IN THE POTOMAC-The Steamer bronsides Cut Through by the Ice .- The steamer Ironsides, on the route between Washington and Acquia Creek, made her way to her wherf in this city last night, the Wawassett fel-lowing her up from Alexandria. The Ironsides started down again this morning at the usual hour with the passengers and mails for Rich-mond, but off the Washington Arsenal the ice was so heavy that, in forcing her way through h, one of the main guard braces was torn off, leaving a hole in the steamer's side nearly a loot square. The vessel commenced to fill rapidly, and was at once run upon the flats. where she now lies, with more than three feet of water in her hold. Captain Giddings, super-intendent of the Potomac Ferry Company, at once sent down the steamer Wawassett to her relief, which boat succeeded in reaching the disabled steamer and took off her passengers and mails, and returned with them to this city, reaching the wharf here about 11 o'clock this merning. Fortunately no one was hart, but

Old Bowen Ring-How About the Collectorship?-Last evening, about 8 o'clock, a number of ward politicians, conspicuous as friends of ex-Mayor politicians, conspicuous as friends of ex-Mayor Bowen in the last municipal campaign, were seen in the neighborhood of the City Hall. Shortly they commenced, singly and in groups, to enter the building occupied by the District Attorney, and proceeded to the chamber of the caucus—Mr. W. A. Cook's back room, on the second floor. Here were soon assembled from twenty to twenty-five Bowenites; among them Henry Himber, ex-Commissioner of the First Ward; Col. Wm. A. Cook, ex-Corporation Attorney, and his aids W. E. Nott and Geo. Burges: the Boy Martin (Cronin.) ex-Chief Fire torney, and his aids W. E. Nott and Geo. Burgess; the Boy Martin (Cronin,) ex-Chief Fire Department; Tighlman Dorsey, Alderman Carter Stewart, Perry Carson, the stalwart, ex-Messenger to Mayor Bowen; the venerable Mike Shiner, ex-Commissioner Peters, Jerome Johnson, Stephen A. Douglas, and George Langley. The presence of "Fitz," the newsboy, disconcerted them, and Perry Carson walked him down stairs, and soon the larger part of the crowd followed. Here there was a confab in the hall, during which a voice much like Cronin's was heard to say, "Crocker is too weak as a candidate for Collector," and another voice a candidate for Collector," and another voice inquired if Wailach would not make the strongest candidate, as he would carry the larger por-

About 8% o'clock Cronin and Tighlman Dor-sey walked across the street and through Ju-diciary Square towards the jail, some saying that they were going to "Hall's." THE AMIDON CONCRET.—Last evening the pupils of the Fourth District Schools gave a grand concert, at Lincoln Hall, to aid in erect-grand concert, at Lincoln Hall, to aid in erecting a monument in memory of Mrs. Margaret Amidon, (formerly teacher of the female grammar school, fourth district.) They were assisted by the pupils of the second district and former pupils of Mrs. Amidon. The hall was crowded, and the duetts, choruses, and piano solos were well rendered. The choruses were under the conductorship of Professor Daniel. Miss Rachel Garrett presided at the piano. About seventy-five young ladies were on the stage. During the evening the Amidon medal was presented by Mr. J.O. Wilson, superintendent of the pubby Mr. J. O. Wilson, superintendent of the pub-lic schools, to Miss Susie Howison, with an ap-propriate address, which was neatly responded

THE COLORED SCHOOLS .- A meeting of the trustees of colored schools was held at the Stevens school house last evening, Messrs. Sy-phax, Wormley and King present. C. Bogan—$129; of which he has distributed $30 to the most needy of the sufferers, and the balance will be distributed upon the recommendation of the dealers in the market.

Miss Murdech delivered this lecture to a crowded house at the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, and it was a great success in every particular.

Center Market. The 8th-street Wing of the Temporary Structure-THE SALE OF STALLS TO-DAY.

To-day at noon there was quite a lively time at the Center Market, the cause being the sale of stalls in the 8th-street wing of the temporary structure. Mr. Frank Cleary (of Latimer & Cleary's) officiated as auctioneer, stating that they would sell the stalls at so much per month, with the understanding that no fish er feed is to be seld therein. He turther stated that purchasers would be able to remain a year, it not longer, in possession of the stalls. Stall No. 303 was the first one put up, and when he announced that the minimum set was $20 he announced that the minimum set was $20 per month, some of the crowd laughed rather derisively, when Mr. Cleary said, "You need'nt laugh, gentlemen, we can pass it." Voices.—
"We'll all pass." "I'll give you $4 and split the difference." No. 307 was pass tarted, and the same minimum was announced, but at this point the laughing ceased, and Mr. Jus. Small, a dealer in peanuts and oranges, took it at $20.

FRACAS IN THE CENSUS OFFICE .- About noon to-day, a collector of Messrs. Green & Williams called at the Censes Office to interview a clerk called at the Censer Office to interview a cierk in the Cerrespondence Division named Foster, in regard to a little bill alleged to be ewing for furniture. The collector it appears had so often and unsuccessfully heretofore called on the same errand that to-day he went direct to the room of the Superintendent General Walker to make complaint. Foster was sent for and informed that he must settle by paying up as soon as possible, when Foster and the collector retired, but they made the hall lively lector retired, but they made the hall lively with talk for a few minutes, the result of which was that Foster went to his room, when the collector soon fellowed saying: "Well he said he could lick me and I want to see him de it," to which several derks replied this is no place for a fight." The confusion then became so extensive that General Walker, being apprised thereof, ordered a messenger named McCooey to secure the services of a policeman, but McCooey took the contract on himself, and summarily ejected the collector, who went off and returned with a the collector, who went off and returned with a police officer, (No. 177.) and interviewed General Walker, the result of which was that he was advised to collect his bill by some other means than by raising a muss in the Census

Society.-The Ohio Republican Association gave their opening "sociable" of the season at Marini's Hall last evening, and it was in every respect a great success. The President, the Postmaster General, and most of the Ohio dele-

Postmaster General, and most of the Ohio delegation in Congress were among the distinguished guests, who mustered altogether about two hundred. The music, decorations, and supper were all that could be desired.

The reception of the Illinois Association, at the Masonic Temple, was another brilliant aftair. Among the large number of distinguished persons present was President Grant, who held a reception just before the dancing began. A teature of the evening was the speech of Mr. Thomas B. Bryan. Many Washingtonians attended the annual ball of the first class of Midshipmen at Annapolie last evening, which was as usual a very pleasant affair.

Mrs. General Parker gave an elegant party last evening to Mrs. Rogers, the daughter of Secretary Fish.

THE SHAMELESS COURSE of a majority of the members of the Levy Court, at their meeting last Monday, calls loudly for their removal, if possible, or the immediate abolition of the corrupt concern. Such nepotism has never before been witnessed, and it is quite clear that those who have been guilty of it are indifferent to the good over him of their fellow man. The fast etil. good opinion of their fellow men. The fantastic tricks which this trifling majority have played show how utterly helpless are the people of this District. Any form of government would be better than that which permits men to gain important positions only to disgrace them. - Georgeown Courier.

A TEMPERANCE REVIVAL.—A grand rally of the friends of temperance is to be held in Lin-coln Hall, to-morrow, Sabbath, afternoon. It is intended to be a temperance and religious meeting. We learn that arrangements have been made for Hon. Henry Wilson to preside and make a short address, Rev. Dr. Chickering, of Portland, Me., and Senator Buckingham to ollow. With congregational singing and such speakers as are announced, the service will be most interesting one, and it is hoped good results will follow.

A CORRESPONDENCE between a committee on behalf of the Invincible Club, composed of colored men, of the First Ward of this city, and Hon. John W. Forney, late editor and proprietor of the Chronicle, is published, in which they express their regret at his withdrawal from active participation in District matters, and he replies thanking them, and counselling harmony among the Republicans in this city. on behalf of the Invincible Club, composed of

"APOLOGY FOR PROTESTANTS" is the subject of a discourse to be delivered at Wall's Opera House, by Joshua Huntingdon, to-morrow night, the entire proceeds of the lecture to be devoted to the relief of the poor of Washington and Georgetown.

Storrs then told witness that he had better not go back to the department again, as he might be detected. Detective Tillman testified to Burley aiding him in this case, as he had done in other cases he had been employed in.

The prosecution here closed their case, and Mr. Storrs made a statement to the court, giving his version of the case, denying all that Burly had said about his posting him as to how to answer questions before the department, pronouncing it an unqualified lie.

GEORGETOWN.

THE CITY COUNCILS—The Collectorship Imbregito.—There was no quorum in the Board of Aldermen last evening. In the Board of Common Council, accounts of Adler & Co., for hardware furnished the Corporation; accounts against the Fire Department; the bull of J. J. McQuillan, for coffins furnished deceased paupers, and the account of the Levy Court for two-difteenths of the fees of the Coroner, ($118.65.) were severally referred. Mr. Casilear asked that the committee on grievances be discharged from further consideration of the petition of sundry bakers against the ordinance establishing the weight of bread; agreed to. Mr. Fuller presented a communication of Columbus Thomas, asking information as to the duties of the position to which he was recently elected—that of Inspector and Marker of Lumber; referred to the Recorder. Mr. Curtis reported favorably on resolution to pay the accounts of Mayfield & Hieston, $50; Joseph F. Birch, $121; Coroner W. W. Potter, $118.50; John W. Gross, $21. Marcy & Payne, $12; J. J. McQuillan, $64; and M. J. Adler, $7.20; all of which were passed, and the committee were discharged from the consideration of the claim of Mr. Donaldson for damages to his wagon. Mr. Berry, from committee on streets, reported resolution to pay the accountermittee on streets. THE CITY COUNCILS-The Collectorship Imconsideration of the claim of Mr. Donaldson for damages to his wagon. Mr. Berry, from committee on streets, reported resolution to pay the claim of Evan Lyons, for repairing Mill street; and it was passed. The Chair presented a communication from the Recorder, calling attention to the anomalous condition of his office as at present constituted, and asking that an ordinance be prepared, defining his duties. Mr. Collins submitted a resolution, referring the subject to a committee of one alderman and two councilmen, to be appointed by the presiding officers of the two boards; which was adopted. Mr. Curtis offered an ordinance "that hereafter all hereafter all by the Councils shall be conducted vira voce instead of by ballot as heretofore," and asked its immediate consideration. Mr. Pickrell suggested that it might be in conflict with the charter, when, on motion of Mr. Collins, it was referred to the Recorder with instructions to report as to its legality. The Recorder subsequently reported that a careful examination of the charter disclosed no clause directing that the elections should be by ballot, and the ordinance offered by Mr. Curtis being before the board, he explained his reasons for offering the same. He said that, in connection with the ELECTIONS FOR TOWN OFFICERS board, he explained his reasons for offering the same. He said that, in connection with the recent election, reports had been circulated which might be construed by some persons, who did not know the acts, as affecting the integrity of the tellers on that occasion. The first mention of it was in a paper published in the "little village over the creek," (pointing to Washington,) and some how or other it has gone around like wildfire. This ordinance will avoid all dislike wildfire. This ordinance will avoid all difficulties of the kind in future. Mr. Dunlop thought it would be trammelling the action of their successors in the Councils, and finally Mr. Casilear objected to the third reading of the ordinance, and it went over. Adjourned.

[Note.—The tellers at the joint convention (Cox and Curtis,) are too well known throughout the District to need any vindication as to their intelligence or integrity, and Mr. Curtis properly treated the matter in the few remarks he made in a jocose style, disclaiming any "virtuous indignation." The article in Ten STAR was a simple statement of the question as the two parties to the contest understood it, and no one interested on either side ever dreamed of putting any blame on either of the gentlemen NAVIGATION both by river and canal is com-pletely stopped for the present by the freeze. The steamer from New York, which was ex-pected at her dock last evening, came as far as the bar, and turned back to Washington, for fear of being frozen in here. It was a wise precaution, too, as this morning boys are skating all over the Potomac, and there is even thicker ice over the channel than on the canal or Rock Creek.

CLOTHES LIFTER .- Last Wednesday a lot of clothing was missed from the wardrobe of the occupants of McLeod's drug store, corner of Bridge and High streets, and it was ascertained that the thief gained access to them through a window in the rear facing Lang's hotel porch.

Nothing more was heard of the clothing till this morning a man named Charles Butler offered a pair of pants for sixty cents to Will McLeod's colored porter, who informed his employers, and the result was Butler was interviewed by the police, and in turn he visited the Police

THE ALARM OF FIRE given last night, about 7 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a chimney of the building of what is knewn as the "Old Yellow Tavern," corner of 5th and High streets.
